CHAPTER 363.

AN ACT FOR THE RELIEF OF J. W. LANGLEY, A CONFEDERATE SOLDIER OF ONSLOW COUNTY.

Whereas J. W. Langley of Onslow County was entitled to a pension as a Confederate soldier, for the year one thousand nine hundred and ten; and whereas his application had been favorably acted upon by the pension board of Onslow County at the regular meeting in July, one thousand nine hundred and ten; and whereas the said application, after having been favorably passed upon by said board, was misplaced, and when found was too late to get his pension for that year, to which he was entitled: Now, therefore, in order to give relief to this worthy old soldier and to give him what he was justly entitled at that time:
